

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF WEST VIRGINIA
AT CHARLESTON

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

CRIMINAL ACTION NO. 2:13-00121

JAMAR ALLEN COLLINS

SUPERVISED RELEASE REVOCATION AND JUDGMENT ORDER
MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER

On January 25, 2017, the United States of America appeared by Eric P. Bacaj, Assistant United States Attorney, and the defendant, Jamar Allen Collins, appeared in person and by his counsel, Lex A. Coleman, Assistant Federal Public Defender, for a hearing on the petition on supervised release submitted by Senior United States Probation Officer Patrick M. Fidler. The defendant commenced a three-year term of supervised release in this action on July 1, 2015, as more fully set forth in the Judgment Including Sentence Under the Sentencing Reform Act entered by the court on February 7, 2014.

The court heard the evidence and the representations and argument of counsel.

For reasons noted on the record of this proceeding, which are ORDERED incorporated herein by reference, the court found that the defendant has violated the conditions of supervised release in the following respect: that the defendant violated federal and state law inasmuch as he distributed approximately ½ gram of heroin for $150 approximately one month prior to March 27, 2016, thereby also violating the condition of his supervised release that he not possess or distribute a controlled substance, as found by the court by a preponderance of the evidence as more fully set forth on the record of the hearing; and as set forth in the petition on supervised release. The court further found by a preponderance of the evidence that Violations 3 and 4 of the petition had not been proved.

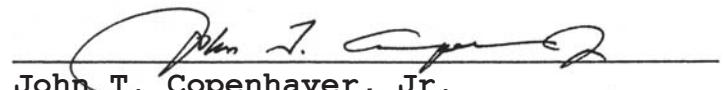

And the court finding, as more fully set forth on the record of the hearing, that the violation warrants revocation of supervised release and, further, that it would unduly depreciate the seriousness of the violation if supervised release were not revoked, it is ORDERED that the supervised release previously imposed upon the defendant in this action be, and it hereby is, revoked.

And the court having complied with the requirements of Rule 32(a)(1)(B) and (C) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, and finding, after considering the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3583(e), that the defendant should be confined to the extent set forth below, it is accordingly ORDERED that the defendant be, and he hereby is, committed to the custody of the United States Bureau of Prisons for imprisonment for a period of FIFTEEN (15) MONTHS, to be followed by a term of twenty-one (21) months of supervised release upon the standard conditions of supervised release now in effect in this district as promulgated by the Administrative Office of the United States Courts (National Form AO 245B), the standard conditions as set forth in Local Rule 32.3 and the special condition that he maintain lawful, gainful employment.

The defendant was remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal.

The Clerk is directed to forward copies of this written opinion and order to the defendant, all counsel of record, the United States Probation Department, and the United States Marshal.

DATED: February 7, 2017

John T. Copenhagen, Jr.
United States District Judge
